Seventh Generation

23. Jacob GREENE was born on December 6, 1843 in Nothweiler, Pirmasens, Rheinland-Pfalz, Germany. He was confirmed in 1857 in Rumbach, Pfaltz, Germany. He died on March 16, 1918 at the age of 74. Jacob was buried on March 19, 1918 in Zion Cemetery, Whitehall, Pennsylvania. According to Pastor Dennis A. Kastens, an authority on the families of Nothweiler, Germany, Jacob Grueny was confirmed on Palm Sunday in 1857 with a grade of "fairly good"--that is "ziemlich gut"--noted by the pastor.

According to the 1870 census, Jacob and his wife Louisa lived in Lower St. Clair Township in Allegheny Co., Pennsylvania and he was a laborer. According to family lore, he came from Friedrichshafen, Germany (in Bavaria, near the Swiss border) during a time of Protestant persecution. According to the 1900 census, Jacob immigrated to America in 1866 while Louisa immigrated to America in 1869. In 1900, they lived in Baldwin Township. He later lived in the farmhouse above Valleydale in Brentwood at the end of East Garden Road. (A street, Jacobson Way, was named after him.)

According to the obituary in the March 17, 1918 edition of the Pittsburgh Post, Jacob died at 6:05 a.m. (His name is spelled Greene in the obituary.) His funeral was at 2:00 p.m. on March 19, 1918 from his late residence on Greene Lane in Brentwood followed at 3:00 p.m. by a service at Zion Lutheran Church.

Louisa DAUENHAUER, daughter of Friedrich DAUENHAUER and Margaretha SATTLER, was born on May 10, 1850 in Nothweiler, Pfalz, Germany. She was baptized on May 20, 1850 in Evangelisch-Reformierte Kirche, Rumbach, Pirmasens, Bavaria, Germany. She died on March 5, 1925 at the age of 74. Louisa was buried on March 8, 1925 in Zion Cemetery, Whitehall, Pennsylvania. She was confirmed Palm Sunday, 1864. According to the International Genealogical Index (IGI), citing the Parish Register for Evangelisch-Reformierte Kirche Rumbach (BA. Pirmasens) (1780-1874), http://www.familysearch.org/Eng/Search/frameset_search.asp, a Louisa Dauenhauer was baptized on May 20, 1850. Given that Louisa's birth date from her tombstone indicates that she was born on May 10, 1850, this is almost certainly the same Louisa.

According to Pastor Dennis A. Kastens, an authority on Nothweiler families, Louisa was confirmed on Palm Sunday, 1864. Her pastor listed her grade as "good."

According to the same record, her parents are shown to be Freidrich Dauenhauer and Margaretha Sattler. This is consistent with the article in the Modern History of New Haven and Eastern New Haven County (1918), regarding Louisa's brother Charles, which indicates that their parents were Fred Dauenhauer and Louise Sattler. (Their mother's given name was either a nickname or, more likely, recorded in error in the article.)

According to the 1900 census, Louisa had 10 living children in 1900. According to the obituary in the March 7, 1925 edition of the Pittsburgh Post, Louisa died at 9:45 a.m. on March 5, 1925. The funeral was held on Sunday at 2:00 p.m. at the residence of her daughter, Louisa Brudin, 49 Carrick Ave., Carrick PA, followed at 3:00 p.m. by a service at Zion Lutheran Church. The obituary indicates that at her death, Louisa had 22 grandchildren and 5 great grandchildren.

He worked for Scott Feed in Hays, Pennsylvania and he was also President of Carrick Building and Loan. He ran for tax collector of Brentwood on the Republican ticket and lost. He owned a lot of property in Brentwood and he also owned a Willy's Knight.

Jacob and Louise lived on Willet Road in Whitehall (then Baldwin Township) when they were first married. They then moved to 3232 Brentwood Avenue and lived there until Jacob built a house at 223 Catskill Ave., in Brentwood because his daughters, Bertha in particular, wanted a nicer house. When Jacob's daughter Bertha married, he divided the house into two apartments. Daughter Louise Green Swietzer and Alpha Swietzer and Bertha Green Henrich and George Henrich lived in the apartments and father Jacob moved to 3232 Brentwood Ave., which he owned.

Jacob was very musical: he played accordion and he had a good voice. He believed strongly in education. He was a truant officer. All of his daughters took music lessons and all of them (except Dorathea) went to secretarial school in Pittsburgh. Both he and his wife spoke and wrote German. He attended Zion Lutheran Church, Whitehall, Pennsylvania until approximately 1900, then, when Zion joined the Ohio Synod, he moved to St. Paul Lutheran Church, South Side (Pittsburgh), Pennsylvania, a Missouri Synod Church. (The rest of the Green family apparently stayed at Zion.) He attended Trinity Lutheran Church, Mt. Oliver (Pittsburgh), Pennsylvania. He was instrumental in establishing the mission which eventually became Concordia Lutheran Church in Brentwood. He, along with several others, mortgaged their homes to fund the building of that church. There was a time when this mission congregation met at the GBU or German Bund [later called Benefit] Union Hall, located in Carrick. He was President and Honorary President of Concordia Lutheran Church.

He died of pneumonia.

McKEETON, PAUL P. "SARGE"

Age 84, on Monday, November 18, 2002 of Baldwin Boro, husband of the late Emma Lou (Fogarty) [sic. Fogarty]; father of David M. (Patti) and Paula C.; grandfather of Amber & Ryan McKeeton and Rich, Stanley & Bethany Hemingway. Paul was a WWII veteran serving as a sergeant in the 668th Bomber [sic. Bomb Disposal] Squadron, European theater; warehouse manager for Champion Building Products. Friends received at the JOHN F. SLATER FUNERAL HOME, INC., 4201 Brownsville Road, Brentwood, Tuesday, 2-4 & 7-9pm, where Funeral Services will be held on Wednesday at 9:30am.

The following thoughts were prepared by John F. and Audrey F. Johnson, Paul's brother- and sister- in-law for use by Pastor Daniel Strussenberg in connection with the homily for Paul's funeral. They are unedited.

SOME REMEMBRANCES OF PAUL MC KEETON: Paul often talked about his days on the swimming team when he and his brother were champion swimmers. Paul was most proud of his service to his country in World War II and would recite war stories at every chance. He told these stories over and over for years after the war. He relished in his nickname "Sarge." At family gatherings he would make all his nephews stand at attention and show them how to salute. He had the most respect for the American flag and displayed the flag every day at his home on Judith Drive in Baldwin. He was a man in perpetual motion and kept moving--moving in every activity. He was an early riser and when it snowed, he would clear the neighbors' driveways with a 4 x 4 piece of plywood before going to work. His main occupation was warehouse management and he would arrive at all his "posts" before any other employee to organize his paper work. He kept meticulous records. He got along with both management and union. He never had a job close to home and traveled thirty to forty miles each way every day. He was the most generous person with his time than any person you could ever meet. After is retirement, Paul assumed the responsibility of caring for his aging mother-in-law--setting up her special living quarters and monitoring her medications and doctors' appointments. He recorded everything--even the number of times he would go up and down the steps. He gave her this care for many years until she was admitted to Concordia Home. He gave the same meticulous care to his wife, Emmy Lou, when she became ill. After his wife's death the family suspected the onset of Alzheimer's Disease because he would become disoriented and would loose his way. Finally his son had to take the car away. At this time Paul realized he wanted to get all his affairs in order, and true to his habit of keeping records, hew wrote reams of paper regarding his will and his requests for his funeral. He insisted on giving copies to everyone. Paul's secret ambition was to become a caregiver for the sick and feeble, and it was at this time that his family thought this would be an opportunity to get him admitted to assisted living at Concordia Home where he cold be taken care of and help the caregivers there. This was an illusion as Paul's illness progressed. His condition deteriorated during his seven and a half years at Concordia and eventually he failed to recognize close relatives. As time passed, he slept 20 out of 24 hours, and was completely dependent on others. On one of the family's last visits when it was not known if he could hear or see, he was asked if he would like to hear the Lord's Prayer. His eyes opened while the prayer was recited. He heard--he knew. Paul and Emmy Lou (Fogarty) were married at Concordia Lutheran Church in Brentwood on June 17, 1949. Paul became a member of Concordia Brentwood by adult confirmation several years before this--this is where they met. Paul was a member of Divine Charity Lutheran Church, a Wisconsin Synod mission, before joining Good Shepherd when that small mission congregation disbanded and his wife had died. He was quite active with his wife in this mission. Paul's joy in life was service to others! We will forward any further thoughts to you after my sister and her family arrives from Virginia if they have more to add.

Corporation. He was also the Convention Manager for the International Iron and Steel Institute from about 1975 to 1994. In these jobs, he traveled all over the United States and the world. John (or J2, as he was known throughout U.S. Steel) was hard-working and known for his enthusiasm, organization and creativity. At home, John was friends with all the kids in the neighborhood, including several mentally handicapped children to whom he gave considerable time and loving and patient attention.

Throughout his life, John was intellectually curious, with particular interests in the Civil War and Lutheran theology. Even at age 85, he was always active, saying "I was never bored a day in my life", and he is enthusiastic in everything he did, believing that "Attitude is more important than skills." When asked how he is doing, his standard reply was "Outstanding!" After his retirement, he ran in numerous 5-K races, winning numerous trophies in his age group. John was a semi-talented wood-worker, turning out and giving away thousands of wood crafts over the years, before retiring from this hobby in 2009.

John was a faithful Christian who, especially after his retirement, devoted much time to Good Shepherd Lutheran Church, Whitehall, Pennsylvania (where he was a member (charter) for over 40 years), serving in numerous capacities, from Sunday School lecturer to fill-in janitor.

She was buried on September 9, 1992 in Venago Cemetery, Venango, Pennsylvania. According to Janet Maloney, Janet and Patty were more like sisters than cousins. Patty would stay at her grandparents home in Cambridge Springs, along with Janet who was staying there while attending college. They were usually together. They wore their hair the same way at times, and from behind you could not tell which of the girls it was. Patty's boyfriend, Scott McKissock, found this out the hard way. He came up behind the girls in the ABC Store in Cambridge, and whispered something in the ear of the one he thought was the appropriate girl. When Janet turned around with a big grin on her face, he turned beet red and didn't know what to do. Needless to say, Janet and Patty never let him forget the incident. They had a big laugh over it.

Patricia died of leukemia.

536. Janet Carol "Jan" MCCULLOUGH was born on November 5, 1944 in Battle Creek, Michigan. She graduated in May, 1962 in Meadville High School, Meadville, Pennsylvania. According to Janet (2009), Janet graduated in May 1966 from Edinboro State College (later became Edinboro University of Pennsylvania).

Janet taught High School in Titusville, PA after college graduation. After marrying and having children, she continued to substitute for a while. She also helped in a shoe store which fitted orthopedic shoes for special needs kids, and the general public, too. After moving to Texas, Janet did marketing research for a time, but had to leave to move to Plano just as she was asked to run the office for the research firm. In Plano, she became involved with the School Crossing Guard program for the City of Plano. She worked as a guard for two years, and then was asked to become a Supervisor. She continued with the program for 15 years. She then helped Frisco out by covering for them for four years. A

She had her right hip replaced in June of 2005, but there was nerve damage done to the leg and foot. She has enjoyed doing scrapbooking at home for her family, and others as well. She has unofficially retired.

Janet remembers the story of the day she had to prove her mettle to her children at their Plano home. She heard the dogs barking, and Danny ran into the kitchen and said that there was a rat riding around the pool on the pool vacuum hose line. The rat had fallen into the pool and had climbed onto the hose line to get out of the water. A few rats had been seen in the neighborhood because of new building going on in the area, but this was the first time one had shown up at the Maloney's. Janet could not think of a way to get to the rat and get him out of the yard without something happening to the dogs or the kids. Of course, Dan was a work. So, she did the only thing that she could think of. She got the net used to clean leaves and debris out of the pool. She knocked the rat back into the pool, and put the net over it. Then she lowered the net down to the bottom of the pool and held it in place, despite the at's struggles, until the rat drowned. She had Chris get a plastic bag. She scooped the rat out of the pool with the net, and put it into the bag. The bag was placed very gingerly by Chris into the garbage can, and taken away with the trash pickup later that day. The boys decided that their mother's country upbringing (Grandparent's farms) had paid some dividends. They laughed about the rat for a long time, and teased Janet a lot. And, of course, Dan also had some smart comments to make when he got home and heard what had happened.

Janet Carol "Jan" MCCULLOUGH and Danial Orville MALONEY were married on August 12, 1967 in St. Paul Lutheran Church, Drake's Mills, Pennsylvania. Danial Orville MALONEY was born on November 19, 1943 in Cleveland, Ohio. He graduated in May, 1961 in Meadville High School, Meadville, Pennsylvania. According to Janet Maloney (2009), Dan was born at Huron Road Hospital, Cleveland, Ohio, weighing 6 lbs 2 oz at birth. Mom was seriously ill with pneumonia following the birth. His father, Neil, was on the ore boat, the Horace S. Wilkinson at time of his birth. He flew to Cleveland on Northwest Airlines.

Dan spent his years on the farm working in the slaughter house with his father, among other things. In January of 1963, an event happened which could have been a disaster, but turned out to be very lucky. There was a steer to be butchered and Dan had to help his Dad. They had just started when Neil went with Dan's brother, Bob, to help put the rest of the cattle into the barn for the night. He came back and said that there were some cattle missing. It was decided that Dan would continue with the butchering, and Bob and Neil would go see if they could find the missing cattle. Sister, Patty, was enlisted to help Dan any way she could. Shortly afterward, Neil came back to say that six head of cattle had walked out on the ice in French Creek, the ice gave way, and the cattle had fallen in and drowned. Neil called the Venango Volunteer Fire Dept. for help. The department had a boat which could be used to get the cattle out of the Creek. He then called neighbor, Raymond Tobin, and asked if he could bring his tractor and help pull the cattle out. Dan and Patty continued finishing up the steer they were working on, and the others went to get the cattle out of the Creek. They had apparently not been in the water for very long because they were still very warm. As each one was pulled out of the Creek, Neil stuck them so that they would bleed out and be ready to butcher. When they got all six head out of the water, they started bringing them up to the slaughter house. Dan and Patty just got the steer they were doing finished, and the first of the drowned cattle arrived. Dan and his Dad worked until 3:00 am in the morning to get the six head of cattle butchered. Unfortunately for Dan, he was scheduled to take a calculus final that same morning at Edinboro University. He did rather poorly on the test.

His Dad, meanwhile, was trying to sell some of the beef because they did not have enough room to store it all. Up to that point, he had only sold a quarter to a neighbor. He was concerned about what they would do with the meat. Then, the phone began to ring, as people heard what happened. They called up to see if they could get some beef at a "discount". It seems that the Volunteer Firemen had gone bowling and told the people what had happened. People knew the quality of the beef that Maloney's produced, and they wanted to see if they could get some of the meat. By the end of the afternoon, all the beef from the six head of cattle had been purchased. Neil said that he could have drowned two more and sold them also. So, a possible disaster took a lucky turn for the Maloney's---except for Dan's poor Calculus exam.

In 1964, he helped along with his Dad to unload the last grain boat to come into the Erie PA. grain elevators.

Summers of 1964 and 1965, he worked for the Agricultural Extension in Meadville. His second cousin Linda Huber was a staff member in the office. After graduation from Edinboro, Dan went to Penn State for a year. Took a position with IBM in Erie, PA. He was married in August of 1967 to Janet McCullough. They lived in an apartment in Titusville, then moved to Oil City in 1969. After leaving IBM, he worked for United Data Services in Franklin, PA for nine years. In 1979, the family moved to Houston (Spring), TX. There he worked for Bank of the Southwest which became MBank. They became part of MTECH, which was bought by Electronic Data Services in 1986. A move to Plano, TX followed in 1988. After 17 years in Plano, a move was made to Frisco, TX in May of 2005. He is still with EDS which was bought by Hewlett Packard in 2008.

Asked about the odd spelling of his name, either his mother or the nurse could not spell, or maybe Helen just wanted it to be different!

Chris loves music and has a good tenor singing voice. He is also an avid reader in his spare time. While growing up, he was known as "Yacky Doodle" because he seemed to never stop talking. His older brother, Mike, pleaded with his mother to "make him stop" when they were at Geauga Lake Amusement Park in Ohio, and Chris kept introducing everyone on the rides they got on to his brother and/or his grandmother, Peg McCullough. Chris was about five years old at this time.

According to his sister, Janet Maloney (2009), she remembers a time that she and Bob had gone to stay overnight with their cousin Patty Gage. Patty and Janet slept in the same room and Bob was in an adjoining room. The girls could see and hear Bob. Before bed, Patty's father, Howard, had told the kids that they had been having trouble with mice and rats. During the night, Janet heard Bob talking to himself. She got up to see what he was doing. Then, she woke Patty and told her to come listen to what Bob was saying. The girls stuck their heads around the corner of the door, and Bob was lying with his back to the girls. He was muttering to himself about his feet and toes being chewed on by a mouse or rat. And, what was he going to do? The girls looked down at the bottom of the bed and Bob's feet were out of the covers. Sitting right there and licking and nosing Bob's feet was Patty's cat. Needless to say, Bob took a lot of kidding about this incident which he blamed on his Uncle Howard.

Bob works for the City of Meadville (2009).

Michael, son of Val and Janet Pawlos and Emily, daughter of Terri and Bob Barger are both four generation PNA members. Directorship must be in their genes for they are both board of directors at Lodge 1052. This may lead to a few poignant discussions at the dinner table.

Michael's father Val is National Board of Director for Region "E" and Emily's Grandfather, Joseph Kaminski is the previous Director of Region "E", so it must be in both of their blood. A November honeymoon in Jamaica is planned. Parents and Grandparents are looking forward for the fifth generation of PNA family members to come along, but the couple said "Don't Rush Us". Sto Lat to Emily and Michael.

Partners, brokers, friends

Langholz and Wilson have formed a natural partnership
by Murry Coleman

DOWNTOWN -- When Gary Wilson Jr. and Kevin Langholz first met in 1982, the Pittsburgh real estate brokers found they had at least two striking similarities. For one, both entrepreneurs had an overriding passion for the game of golf. And for another, Mr. Wilson and Mr. Langholz shared long-standing family ties to the local real estate community.

"We were both third generation real estate professionals working for our uncles," Mr. Wilson, now 38, recalled. Mr. Langholz, now 41, began his career as a broker with the Bill Green Co. after college in 1979. Mr. Wilson started in 1982 working for Realty Growth Corp., which had been run for years by his uncle, Bruce Hill Jr.

Both brokers also had prominent grandfathers in the industry. In Mr. Wilson's case, it's Reggie Wilson. Mr.

Langholz is the grandson of Bill Green Sr.

"We talked about doing something together for years," Mr. Langholz said. "We were both young and looking to spread our wings, so to speak."

In 1990, they saw an opportunity too good to pass up. Mr. Langholz's uncle, Bill Green Jr., wanted to sell his business. The fledgling entrepreneurs were eager to join forces and they successfully persuaded Mr. Green to turn the firm over to them.

"The company had made a name for itself by focusing on the industrial brokerage side," Mr. Wilson said. "We didn't want to become huge, but we saw opportunities to branch out."

Expanding from its industrial brokerage base, the newly named Langholz/Wilson & Associates moved into other sectors of the Pittsburgh market. "I think most real estate people would say we're known most prominently now as retail and office tenant representatives," Mr. Langholz said.

Langholz/Wilson is the exclusive broker in the local market for retailers such as Circuit City, Blockbuster Video, the Gap, Pep Boys and Bruegger's Bagels. Brinker International, which owns Chili's Grill & Bar and several other large restaurant chains, is a major client of Langholz/Wilson. "We're also doing a lot of client advisory services now on the industrial side," Mr. Langholz said. ...

Mr. Langholz and Mr. Wilson believe that such initiative to seek out new ideas and contacts is what separates their business from other area commercial brokers. "We've assembled a diverse group of people to take advantage of the company that's been created," Mr. Wilson said. "We've got former bank vice presidents, construction managers, retail executives and a host of others with skills to bring to the table."

The concept they say they've tried to develop in their business is one of a full-service commercial "boutique." "We want this to be a one-stop shop where our people can look at a deal from almost any angle and have the resources to get it done for our clients," Mr. Wilson said.

By offering tenant representation, property management and consulting services aimed at fostering new development, Langholz/Wilson's principals believe they can compete with national real estate brokerages. "We want to grow, but we're never going to be some sort of huge organization or anything," Mr. Wilson said. "We want to maintain our independence from the big boys but still be able to provide customers with the same menu of services."

I started getting into music in middle school, when I wanted to buy vinyl records, so I got a whole bunch of Clash and Black Flag albums, which might be worth money if they weren't in such crappy condition.

In high school, instead of having friends I listened to music and watched sketch comedy. I went to Point Park University in downtown Pittsburgh (most people haven't heard of it either). I started off as an Entertainment Management Major, but got way too involved with the radio station, so I graduated with a Radio Broadcast major. I worked at the school's radio station, WPPJ, all my years at college, two years as music director. I live where Williamsburg kisses Bushwick with my wife, where we are lucky enough to have a washer/dryer in our apartment.

Hobbies include: skee ball techniques and discussion, creating slang terms (a "golden oreo" means a hamper), stealing jokes from Zach Galifianakis, and saving money to go to the World Series when the Pittsburgh Pirates make it next year. Favorite artists: Barr, The Halo Benders, Bobby Birdman, Wolf TColonel, The Talking Heads, Quasi and my ideal lead singer for Van Halen would be Norah Jones.
